

Mexico Paper Alleges Oswald Visited Soviet, Cuban Consuls

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The newspaper Excelsior said Sunday night it had evidence that Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of President Kennedy, visited the Soviet and Cuban consuls here last September and tried to get a visa.

The newspaper did not disclose the source of its story, but said that it was from "a high official source." It said it corroborated the report and found that Oswald was in Mexico from Sept. 26 to Oct. 3.

The newspaper said Oswald crossed the border at Nuevo Laredo Sept. 26, met with Cuban Consul Eusebio Azcue the next day and requested a visa so he could travel to the Soviet Union via Cuba.

Excelsior said the consul told Oswald his request would have to be submitted to the Cuban Foreign Ministry for clearance, a procedure usually taking about three weeks.
